Course Description

Students will use various techniques to assess alternative investment opportunities and different financing methods. Specialized skills in corporate financial management are developed through the application of techniques such as the discounted cash flow model, capital structure model, dividend valuation model, capital asset pricing model, and option pricing models. Areas covered included working capital management, capital budgeting, capital structure and agency conflicts, and dividend payout policy.

Required Textbook

Robert Higgins, Analysis for Financial Management, McGraw-Hill Higher Education, 11th edition, 2015. ISBN: 9780077861780, 0077861787

Course Hours

The course has 25 sessions in total. Each class session is 120 minutes in length. The course meets from Monday to Friday.

Grading Policy

Quizzes (4 quiz)	20%
Exams (2 exams)	60%
How the Market Works	15%
Attendance and Participation	5 %

Quizzes:

For this five-week course, there will be a Quiz on the Monday of each week commencing in Week 2.

Each Quiz is worth 5%.

Exams: Exam 1 will be held on the Friday of Week 3. Exam 2 will be held on the Friday of Week 5. Each Exam is worth 30%.

How the Market Works:

Throughout the course, students will take part in a simulation using the HowtheMarketswork.com website. Students will be given a notional $100,000 to invest as they please in the stock market. Students will be asked to report their positions, gains and losses, on a weekly basis. This stock market game will be the crux of our practical application of theory throughout the course.

Attendance and Participation:

You are expected to attend every class. You are allowed one unexcused absence without penalty. Students will be asked to drop the course if you they miss more than three (3) class periods with unexcused reasons. I encourage all of you to participate in class lectures and discussions and raise questions concerning the understanding of lectures. I will credit your final grade according to my general impression of your participation and your attendance.

Grading Scale

The instructor will use the grading system as applied by JNU:

Definition	Letter Grade	Score
Excellent	A	90-100
