Course Description

This course provides an opportunity for student to discover the realities of modern marketing in contemporary situations, emphasizing the functional approaches; understanding the competitive environment: Knowledge required in evaluating markets effectively and adjusting to the rapid changes in the global managerial world.

Course Learning Objectives

1. Terminology - Students should learn to understand and use the language and terminology used in academia regarding modern marketing. In addition to the language, students will learn various marketing concepts that are helpful in managing and developing marketing plans. To some extent, students learn to apply those concepts.

2. Theory - Students should learn various marketing concepts and theories. By the end of this course, students will know how to identify retailing trends, communicating via marketing channels, Pricing strategies and the concepts of creating value for organization products and services. In some cases students learn how to apply concepts discussed.

3. Attitude - Students should finish the course with a realistic attitude towards marketing and creating value. For example, students may find out that business use marketing techniques and that these techniques are not inherently unethical. On the other hand, the course will not try to convince students that firms that use integrating marketing techniques are great humanitarian or democratic institutions, either. Thus, this course is meant to shape the attitudes of students towards business marketing.

4. Teamwork - Students should have the opportunity to work in teams and gain experience in teamwork and cooperation. Most businesses now manage their work using teams and this course will set students on the right track to learning about teamwork. When students search for a job, most employers will ask about teamwork experiences. This course will provide in-class team exposure.

5. Writing & Analysis - Students will complete some case analysis and write reports for case analyses. These cases are designed to improve writing skills by learning to write a concise analysis of management cases. This also involves an analytical component. Both writing and analysis should prepare students for higher level classes.

6. Internet - Students need to further develop internet skills to identify various resources available for organizations and to use them in enhancing decision making and analytical skills.
